International Law Talk Podcast: “Bad Faith in European Trademark Law”

Verena von Bomhard (BomhardIP) · Thursday, June 17th, 2021

We are happy to announce the new International Law Talk Podcast episode on Bad Faith in European Trademark Law. For this episode I had the honor of speaking with the leading expert in the field: Alexander von Mühlendahl, former Vice-President of the EUIPO, prior to that deeply involved in the creation of EU trademark law, and 2006 IP Hall of Fame inductee.

In the podcast, we touch upon Bad Faith in European Trademark Law in general as well as specific case law. Listen to the podcast.

You may also be interested in the English-language legal commentary edited by the two of us, Concise European Trademark Law. This is an article-by-article commentary on the provisions of the EU Trademark Regulation and Directive and a great resource for day-to-day practical work.
